

Omega Writers Inc. Cancellation Policy

In the event of unforeseen circumstances Omega Writers Inc reserves the right to cancel the conference. However, once registrations have opened, the Management Committee would only cancel the annual conference if there was a major weather event or civil disturbance incident that prevented a significant number of attendees travelling to the venue. If the conference was cancelled under such circumstances, the management committee would attempt to refund all registration monies, but this would be subject to the venue providing a refund. In all cancellation situations Omega Writers Inc will not be responsible for any other charges incurred by the registrant due to the cancellation of the conference.

In the event that a conference participant is unable to attend the conference, a request for cancellation must be emailed to the Omega Writers Conference Organiser (conference@omegawriters.org) no later than four weeks prior to the starting date of the conference in order to receive a full refund of conference registration fees. In all refund situations all other expenses incurred by the participant outside of the conference registration fees remain the responsibility of the participant and will not be covered by Omega Writers Inc.

All cancellations received by the conference organiser via email within four weeks of the starting date of the conference are at the Omega committee and venue's discretion.
